Practice 5.2

At least half of the board comprises independent directors. For Large Companies, the board comprises a majority independent directors.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board currently has seven members comprising three (3) Executive Directors, three (3) Independent Non-Executive Directors and one (1) Non-Independent Non-Executive Director. This is in compliance with the Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad which requires at least two (2) or one-third (1/3) of the Board members, whichever is higher, to be Independent Directors.
		Although less than half of the Board comprises Independent Directors, there are four (4) Non-Executive Directors who are not involved in the day-to-day management of the Company. The Board is of the view that the presence of the three (3) Independent Directors is sufficient to provide the necessary checks and balances in the decision making process of the Board.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:	Please explain the measure(s) the company has taken or intend to take to adopt the practice.

Practice 5.4 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years without further extension.

Note: To qualify for adoption of this Step Up practice, a listed issuer must have a formal policy which limits the tenure of an independent director to nine years without further extension i.e. shareholders' approval to retain the director as an independent director beyond nine years.

Application :	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice :

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board is well represented by individuals with diverse professional backgrounds and experiences in the areas of engineering, finance, accounting, law, human resource and property development. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee, in making a recommendation to the Board on the recruitment of new Board member or Senior Management, shall have regard to the candidate's skill, knowledge, expertise and experience, age, gender, professionalism, integrity. In the case of candidates for the position of Independent Non-Executive Directors, the independence criteria as set out in Paragraph 1.01 of the Listing Requirements as well as the necessary skill and experience to bring an independent and objective judgment on issues considered by the Board and the ability to discharge such responsibilities as expected from independent non-executive directors.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

If the selection of candidates was based on recommendations made by existing directors, management or major shareholders, the Nominating Committee should explain why these source(s) suffice and other sources were not used.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Nomination and Remuneration Committee (“NRC”) is responsible for evaluating and recommending suitable candidates for the Board. Such responsibilities include screening, conducting initial selection of internal and external candidates, performing requisite evaluation and assessment on the candidate’s ability to discharge their duties effectively and efficiently, prior to making recommendations to the Board for its approval. In search for suitable candidates, the NRC may receive recommendations from existing Board members, senior management or major shareholders and also open to referrals from independent sources. The appointment of Dato’ Lim Juay Jin on 3 February 2025 was based on recommendation from existing board members. The NRC had assessed the credential of the new candidate and also considered his experience holding directorship in another listed company and is of the view that Dato’ Lim Juay Jin is fit and proper to be a director, and therefore recommended to the Board for appointment.

Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.7

The board should ensure shareholders have the information they require to make an informed decision on the appointment and reappointment of a director. This includes details of any interest, position or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect their capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the board and to act in the best interests of the listed company as a whole. The board should also provide a statement as to whether it supports the appointment or reappointment of the candidate and the reasons why.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Directors' profiles, which include their age, gender, date of appointment, skills and experience, directorship in other companies, and any conflict of interest are set out in the Annual Report 2025. The Board has also provided a statement to support the reappointment of the Directors in the explanatory notes of the 42 nd Notice of AGM.

Practice 5.10

The board discloses in its annual report the company's policy on gender diversity for the board and senior management.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board currently does not have a formal policy on gender diversity.
		The Board believes in providing equal opportunity to candidates who have the skills, experience, core competencies and other qualities regardless of gender. Currently, the Board has two (2) female directors, which is in line with Practice 5.9 of the MCCG in relation to gender diversity and its senior management team is comprised of women.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:	Please explain the measure(s) the company has taken or intend to take to adopt the practice.
Timeframe	:	Choose an item.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.
Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	: The Nomination and Remuneration Committee (“NRC”) conducted its annual appraisal via questionnaires on the effectiveness of the Board, its Committees and the contribution of each Director. The assessment involved individual Directors completing separate evaluation questionnaires regarding mix of skill and experience, independence of the Independent Directors, evaluation of Board and Board Committees, and peer evaluation in respect of fit and proper, performance, contribution to interaction – constructive expression of views and issues, quality of input and understanding of role as a Director. The results of these assessments are summarised by the Company Secretary and discussed by the NRC and thereafter reported to the Board. The NRC also took note of each individual Director’s attendance at Board meetings, Board Committee meetings and Annual General Meetings, their participation in discussions during the meetings and their commitment of time to the Company. The NRC, upon the review being carried out, is satisfied that the size of the Board is optimum and that there is an appropriate mix of experience and expertise in the composition of the Board and its Committees.
